ITEMS OF DISCUSSION

MacKenzie Jackson made a presentation about the Under 21 event being held on April 27, 2013. She commented that the committee was busy making flyers, posters, banners, and requested the Youth Commissioners help to spread the word about the event.

Matt Mingrone made an update on the progress with Facebook and stated that they had posted the agenda for the meeting on Facebook last week.

Stefan Montana commented that there has been little posted on Instagram this month.

The Youth Commission commented on the need to reconnect with the businesses following the letter that was mailed in February. It was suggested to either do a follow-up letter or visit the businesses to check in.

Ben Baranovsky commented that the Commission will need to vote on a Youth Friendly Business for 2013 at the May meeting. The Youth Commissioners discussed possible establishments and had narrowed it down to:

- Pizza My Heart
- Main Street Burger
- Café Flores

Claire Strickland, Hyuntai Byun, Crystal Huang, and Shomik Jain all attended the Cupertino Youth Commission meeting on March 27, 2013.

- Commented that their Youth Commission did a lot of collaborative projects with the community. Some of the projects were the giving week, walk to school week and the Senior Tea event.

ITEMS OF INFORMATION

Chief Seaman commented on the recent graffiti incidents occurring in Town.

- Commented on a new program called TipSoft that the LGMSPD will be launching in a few weeks.

Ben Baranovsky commented that the application process for student commissions is underway and applications may be submitted to Jackie Rose.
