

Growing Greener

Fall 2019

Events

California Coastal Cleanup Day

Join in the effort to keep our creeks clean, healthy, and beautiful by volunteering at the California Coastal Cleanup Day on Saturday, September 21st! Work with other volunteers from 9:00 a.m. to 12:00 p.m. removing trash and making a difference!

For more information visit:
www.CleanACreek.org

JCC Los Gatos Climate Fair

Take action on climate change! More than 20 local government and community groups, including the Town of Los Gatos, will have information at this free event on Sunday, September 22nd from 11:00 a.m. to 3:00 p.m. in the Addison-Penzak Jewish Community Center Auditorium.

For more information visit:
<https://apjcc.org/event/climate-fair/>

Going GREEN for HALLOWEEN

Hit thrift stores for ghoulish hand-me-downs or shop your closet to create or reuse a costume.

Don't dump those pumpkin seeds! Instead make a delish snack by salting and roasting them.

Shop locally at the Farmers' Market for spooky holiday dishes.

Don't litter and pick up candy wrapper trash while trick-or-treating to prevent creek pollution.

GREEN living for Thanksgiving

Eat local and in season by shopping at the Farmers' Market.

Ditch the plastic decorations, and use nature to decorate this season.

Donate or compost any unwanted food scraps and recycle all food packaging and containers.

Reduce your carbon footprint by staying local this year.

Create a new tradition and adopt a turkey through www.farmsanctuary.org.